The Duchesse de Chartres as Hebe, Pastel -Louise Henriette de Bourbon-Conti (1726-1759), Later Duchesse d Orleans. Louise Henriette de Bourbon-Conti, was born on June 20, 1726, the only daughter of Louis Armand II de Bourbon, Prince de Conti, and of Louise Elisabeth, daughter of Louis III de Bourbon, Prince de Conde. Her parents were cousins. She married in 1743 Louis Philippe (1725-1785), becoming Duchesse de Chartres, and in 1752 Duchesse d Orleans, and she was the mother of Philippe Egalite (1747-1793) and the grandmother of Louis Philippe (1773-1850), the last King of France. The original version of this painting is in the permanent collection of the Stockholm National Museum. It was first exhibited in 1754 in France. The original version of this picture is reproduced in Nolhac's book on Nattier where there is also mention of other versions done by Nattier of the portrait of the same sitter. It is known that Nattier did several pastels. Famous art works of the time were often reproduced in oil or pastel by the artist, or under his supervision in the studio or by others. The rendering of this picture has been attributed, without doubt, due to the high quality of the work and the delicacy of the tones to the atelier of the master, Jean Marc Nattier (1685 - 1766), France, as a reduced version of the original design attributable to the master, by E L Osterander (Edwin L Osterander - Art, Probate, Insurance Appraisals, San Francisco), May 1964, and given the value of $US 25,000. This picture was loaned to The J Paul Getty Museum in California in June 1975 by the Scitovszky family, Los Angeles. The previous owner purchased the picture in Los Angeles, California in 1989, and it has been held in a private collection. Approx 78cm x 66cm & frame 106cm x 94cm	8000-12000
